

Amanda Nepomuceno is a Certified Professional Dog Trainer and a graduate of the prestigious Tom Rose School of Professional Dog Trainers in St. Louis, Missouri. She has been a member of the International Association of Canine Professionals for 7 years and has received the distinguished IACP Ambassador award. She currently serves as the 2015 IACP Secretary. In addition, Amanda is an AKC Canine Good Citizen Evaluator. Amanda has worked for Holiday Barn Pet Resort in Richmond, Virginia since 2005 and is currently the Personal Dog Trainer at the Southside location. In her spare time, Amanda enjoys competing in DockDog competitions along the east coast. Amanda has five fantastic dogs: Pickles, an Australian Shepherd; Tater Tot, a Chihuahua; Crouton, a Chihuahua mix; Grits, an Australian Cattle Dog and Pita, an Australian Shepherd mix. Amanda is also the proud "Mom" of Spud, the cutest hedgehog on the planet!